

C&G Weddings Monthly Radio Plan

Friday, April 15th, 2011: Wedding Budget Winner!

What better day to go live with our radio show than tax day where we will address the ins and outs of money & budgets and how best to use both for your wedding. We walk through the Wedding Budget process in general and then tailor one specifically for our lucky contest winner! We will break down the budget process to help you better prepare for your wedding, so you can use that refund wisely.

Our tips and advice will help you organize your finances regardless of how big or small your wedding budget might be. Listen in and have your budget questions answered!

Wednesday, April 20th, 2011: Is a Destination Wedding Actually Cheaper?

On the 5th of May, our show will be live at one of the premier food & wine destinations in the US, where we will be setting up a destination wedding on the 7th! Many couples tend to believe that a destination wedding can be a huge money saver; is this really the case? Tune in and find out!

We will follow up our wedding budget conversation to examine the cost and scope of planning for destination weddings. How you can save and what you need to know before you commit to taking your wedding on the road.

Wednesday, April 27th, 2011: To Tent or Not To Tent? That is the Question:

We head to Knoxville, TN in a week where we will pitch a tent for 200 guests. As we prepare for our wedding outside, we help you consider what it really means to have a tented affair under the stars. The allure of big back yards and gorgeous tents are more than just a pipe dream for many; listen in and we will give you the tricks to really understand what creating a wedding from scratch can mean, both aesthetically and practically.

Thursday, May 5th, 2011: Wedding Destinations: Live from Blackberry Farms in Knoxville, TN!

We are coming to you live from Blackberry Farm in Knoxville, TN. We will tell you what makes this a premier Relais and Chateaux property in the middle of east Tennessee and why we are excited to be here. Learn about the property and also about how to plan a 5 star wedding at a 5 star property. A special guest from Blackberry Farm will join us live during the show.
